Defense Counsel

Re: United States v. Michael Persico
Criminal Docket No. 10-0147 (SLT)

Dear Counsel:

The government writes in response to Ms. Kedia's letter of June 1, 2012.

First, with regard to your request for the government to facilitate the production of Alphonse Persico and John Pappa, who are both in custody, the appropriate procedure is for the defendant to prepare a writ directing the Bureau of Prisons to produce these inmates and then present the writ to the Court and the United States Marshal Service. The government is under no obligation to prepare that writ on your behalf.

Second, with regard to your request for the government to produce Carmine Sessa, Ronald Moran, Maritza Medina and John Paladino, the government has already advised you that these individuals are not under the government's control. Therefore, the government cannot produce them for you, for trial or for any other purpose.

Finally, the government has no additional information to provide with regard to John Pate and Salvatore Miciotta.

Very truly yours,

LORETTA E. LYNCH
United States Attorney
